Dr. Hines assignment to the Philippines while in the Air Force proved to be a lifetime rewarding experience. She was appointed to be the editor of the PWOC (Protestant Women of the Chapel) newspaper and as editor she decided to write a story about a chaplain whose long and faithful service needed recognition. The women of the chapel planned a big celebration in his honor and needed additional dishes for the ceremony. Being short on supplies, they borrowed the dinnerware from the city college. While washing the plates, out jumped a mouse! The ladies all screamed with fear. Despite the little unwanted visitor, the chaplain s dinner was a success. However, during the week the thought of the mouse lingered in Dr. Hines mind and she decided to turn her fear into inspiration by writing a children s book called The College Mouse.
